MANUAL OF REGULATIONS: Claims for refunds are made in accordance with the Manual of Regulations for Private Higher Education of the Commission on Higher Education (2008). When students register in a school, it is understood that they are enrolling for the entire academic year for elementary and secondary courses, and for the entire semester for collegiate courses. Students who transfer or otherwise withdraw, in writing, within two (2) weeks after the beginning of classes and who have already paid the pertinent tuition and other school fees in full for any length longer than one month, will be charged a retention fee of 10 percent of the total amount due for the term if they withdraw within the first week of classes, or a 50 percent retention fee if within the second week of classes, regardless of whether or not they have actually attended classes. Students may be charged all the school fees in full if they withdraw anytime after the second week of classes.
